OUR GUELPH DESPATCH. GUELPH, C. W., March 15, 1866. has nearly disappeared, but rages on the frontier in all its force. Volunteers are still being organized in every rillage and bamiet in the country. response to the call as follows:—

This perhaps would be highly commendable did we not know for a certainty that many of the same volunteers had to be brought up to the mark at the point of the bayonet, and in several cases dragged by the heels from under their beds. Many also feigned sickness, and a few left for parts unknown. This, however, is not so had as how the call was responded to in Kingston, the city of Prince of Wales rotoriety, where the alarm was sounded for hours during the night, and where but forty volunteers responded to the call. The tables have been turned in Canada as far as bounty jumping is concerned. There has been as much as one hundred and fifty dollars offered for a substitute. Poor a figure as Upper Canada made in this business, Lower Canada is much worse, as we are credibly informed the French Canadians uttery; refused to take the oath, and the Irish in general are looked upon with suspicion. As to the loyalty of the regular forces in Canada, we can say that on a late occasion the officers of the Forty-seventh regiment, stationed at Toronto, had themselves to perform duty as common scatries upon the magazines, and no later than last week there were three privates flogged and atterwards sont to prison for three months for expressing Fenian sentiments. sponse to the call as follows:-

To-day the officers waited upon the government and assured it that the rumor was wholly without foundation. The men of the regiment have threatened to mob this councilor if they can lay

A Cabinet council was held here at noon, presided over the Governor General. During this meeting, two grams were received, one from the Governor General of New Brunswick, and the other from the Governor of Nova Scotia. The first announced that a resolution advising confederation had just been carried unanimously by the Upper House of the Legislature in that province and that a similar result was expected in the Lower House. The second despatch expressed a belief that the measure was now sure of success in Nova Scotia.

FIE KINGSTON ST. PATRICK'S SOCIETY SUPPORTING THE GOVERNMENT.

[Kingston (March 13) deepatch to the Toronto Globe,]
There was a very large assemblage of the members of the St. Patrick's Society, on Monday night, in the City Hall, numbering between four and five hundred. The band of the Christian Brothers' School was in attendance in the gallery. At eight o'clock the President, Dr. Sullivan, took the chair. After the enrolment of several new members and the transaction of the ordinary business of the society. Mr. James O'Reilly, Q. C., moved the following resolution, seconded by Mr. Daniel Macaron, barrieer-at-law:—

Resolved, That this society learn with deep regret that an invasion of this province is threatened by an armed body of men from the United States, the majorisy of whom are presumed to be countrymen of ours. The Irishmen of Canada have ever been proverbial for their loyalty to the Crown of Great Britain, and they are now, as they have ever been, prepared to defend their rights and their adopted country being attacked, the members of this Society being attacked, the members of this Society ledge themselves to assist the Queen's government to the use of their power in repelling the foreign les, no matter who they may be or from whatever quarter they ome.'

Mr. O'Reilly spoke ably and effectively in favor of this secolution, and was followed by Mr. Macarron in a very feeling speech. The resolution was then put from the chair, and it was carried unanimously by every one rising and the entire was adjourned until Thursday evening The the resolution was then put from the chair, and it was carried unanimously by every one rising and the tenter was adjourned until Thursday evening The tenter was adjourned until Thursday evening The meeting was adjourned until Thursday evening The meeting was adjourned until Thursday evening The meeting was adjourned until Thursday evening The second the contractions for th

ANTI-ENGLISH SENTIMENTS OF THE FRENCH CANADIAN PRESS.

[From the Montreal L'Ordre, March 13.]

The aiscrity with which our volunteer militis have responded to the pressing appeal of the government is another proof that they may be depended upon at any moment. And, in truth, it is called upon to defend our menaced homesteads, to repet the invasion ready to burst upon us. From this point of view we have nothing but praise to bestow upon them, and we call upon them mobily to fulfil their duty, if, unfortunately, they are called upon to fulfil it to the end.

But we cannot but make some remarks here which will tend to confirm all we have already said on this subject. If the country is now even more estonsively agitated than it was during the Trent affair; if our manners, already passably damaged, should even be further dinorganized by the expenses of the immense organization now about to be piaced on foot; if our attains suffer from this state of stagnation, it is benefined and at the subject of the fulfil decreption of the immense organization now about to be piaced on foot; if our attains suffer from this state of stagnation, it is benefined and state of the index on the suffer of the fulfil decreption of the f rible. That this Fenian invasion is threatened because this province is British, is beyond question; but is that a sort of thing to flaunt before the people in the hour of preparation, in the way that L'order does, if it had not an ultrior and seditions object, which is not far to seek, but which it apparently dares not openly avow L'Orde carefully consents from its French speaking readers that if we incur this danger because we are British we have also the powerful protection of Britain to maintain us in the posit on of a separate Northern Power, unmixed with the burthens and political confusion of our neighbors. That which is worth having is worth defeuding, and defence is the first duty of a freeman. Any people that is indifferent to it is by that fact already enslaved.

MOVEMENTS IN THE STATES.

Maintain Neutrality-Fenian Regiments Mustering at Louisville. BUPPALO, March 15, 1866.

A force of two hundred United States troops arrived here yesterday, and are now at Fort Porter.

More are said to be expected, and it is supposed that they are to be sent here to see that the neutrality laws are respected.

MUSTERING IN OF TROOPS.

[From the Louisville Journal, March 12.]

Two full companies of one hundred men each for the Irish Army of Liberation were mustered into the service of the republic last evening by Major Wm. Mangan, Adjutant General of the State of Kentucky. The officers of these pioneer companies have been appointed, and will receive their commissions in a few days. The men of the two organizations paraded yesterday evening previous to their muster-in at the Emerald Hail, on Fith street. They made a decidedly military appearance. From all indications, the Fenian War Department is making carment and active preparations. Men are enfolling by the score, and it is confidently expected that the city of Louisville will furnish at least one complete regiment for the army of General Success. Americans as well as Irishmen are showing their anxiety to smell gampusdee and otherwise assist the Fenian cause. The treasury in this city is receiving donations constantly, and the friends of Ireland express great hopefulness of ultimate victory.

> Our Havana Correspondence. HAVANA, March 10, 1868. REVOLUTIONARY DEMONSTRATION.

A party of twenty-three young native Cub made a pronunciamiento at Villa Clara and went into the district of Sagua la Grande, and while on their way to San Juan de los Remedios they had an engagement with the Spanish troops, who, being superior in numbers, discipline and arms (the Cubans were armed only with cutlasses), succeeded in capturing twelve of them after a desperate fight. Eleven of them are still at large, and at a late hour it was expected that they would attempt to rescue their companions in larger force.

The Havana press of course endeavors to represent these men as a marauding party, with no other object than plunder; but this has always been the name given to patriotic movements in despotic countries. The repub-lican societies of Cuba and Porto Rico, through whom we received the intelligence, assure us that they are ac-quanted with many of these young men, and that they belong to the respectable class of the people. The Ha-vaca press does not specify where or what they plun-dered, and this is enough to make their account suspicious. Their cries were "Viva la Independencia". The republican societies of Cuba and Porto Rico are in sion of the names of the malcontents.

This movement is a positive and energetic manifesta-tion of the true state of opinion among many in the BOARD OF BEAUTH RETURNS. According to the official returns of this board, in the district of Havana, in January last, out of thirty-eicht-cases of yellow fever nineteen proved fatal (the mor-tality has always been greater at this period than during forty cases of smallpox only nine had died.

It appears by an official order from Senor Michelena, the former Gobernador Civil (the new one was installed on the 8th), that passengers need not bring any pass-ports, provided that at the places they come from it is customary to give them.
INCREASED COMMUNICATION WITH NEW ORLEANS. Mr. A. Zerega, of New Orleans, and connected with the new direct line of steamers between this port and New

In consequence of the Spanish insurance offices rejecting war risks altogether, and the onerous rates of ining war rosks allogother, and the onerous rates of insurance demanded abroad, a merchant of Matanzas may proposed the formation of an association of merchants in this island, in shares not less than $10,000, for the purpose of insuring vessels against the war risk at moderate rates of premium—for example, three jet cent to Europe and four per cent to the River Plate. The projector is himself ready t contribute $20,000, and thinks that with a naminal capital of one million the company could meet any casualities that might occur during the present Spanish-American war. The project seems to promise a favorable reception. He further sag gests that the commercial community might thate and

"Consider to Order."

A wedding took place yesterday at the American Cosulate worthy of note, as showing "what love will through" to achieve its ends. As American resident the island, living at Sancti Espiritu, visited New Yolast winter for the purpose of marrying the lady whom he was engaged. On that occasion the fates we not propidious, and through sickness or other cause: ceremony was deserred. His business engagement of the common that we will be successed another such journey in quest of happine and, as the mountain could not go to Mahomet, Mahom must come to the mountain. Accordingly the preciof freight was shipped by her friends per Morro Castle the care of that gallant old sea dog, Captain Adama better Cerberus than whom could not have been lected, with instructions to only deliver the valual package when all charges, civil and religious, he been duly and appropriately satisfied, in default which to be returned in as good order and condition when shipped. The Morro Castle arrived in due could time, but, alasi "the course of true love never run smooth." In the first place, the bridegroom did turn up for nearly a week, and Captain Adams stourefused to allow the lady out of his sight. Yesterd however, the gentleman made his appearance, and first and man difficulty was overcome. Captain Adams then immediately put on his spectacles and went to condition the law books, and some doubts were assed the mind of the stanch mariner about the legality of marriage by the Consul. Great was the consternat thereby produced, and overything looked black for young people. Finally, however, by the aid of great Cuban argument a priest was found to perform ceremony. Captain Adams produced the lady as contract, the vows were pronounced, and the padrove of to the Hotel de Santa Isalel, where bri accommodations had been prepared emprecide morales successively and th
